

A shared solution for all suppliers

Chorus Pro, which was built by AIFE, the Government Financial Information Systems Agency, was created with your needs in mind.

CHORUS PRO HELPS YOU:

Cut your printing, mailing and invoice storage costs

Track the progress of your invoices on the web portal in real time, from submission

Reduce invoice processing times

Shrink your carbon footprint

Automatically integrate your invoices in your client's accounting IT system

In the run-up to the launch of Chorus Pro, paperless invoicing represents:

- A competitive advantage (electronic invoicing clauses are increasingly included in public procurement contracts)
- An opportunity to communicate your company's leadership, image and reputation

Paperless invoicing for public-sector suppliers

1 JANUARY 2017

UN OPPORTUNITY FOR BUSINESSES

All concerned

CUTTING RED TAPE FOR BUSINESSES

Suppliers can submit invoices for the ENTIRE PUBLIC SECTOR.

Suppliers can use a single specially-created government portal to send invoices to any public-sector body free of charge.

THE ROLLOUT OF PAPERLESS INVOICING

SAVE THE DATE : 1 JANUARY 2017

Following on from the central government in 2012, local authorities and public institutions must, as of 1 January 2017, be prepared to accept electronic invoices submitted by their suppliers.

Chorus Pro – made to fit your needs

The innovative new Chorus Pro web portal has been designed to make life easier for businesses, and to build trust between the public sphere and its suppliers, both big and small.

NEW FEATURES

Drawing on experience gained in electronic invoicing, the new portal has been given additional features:

NOW

ON CHORUS PRO

Central government suppliers can choose one of several ways to submit their invoices:

ON THE PORTAL ITSELF

They can directly enter their invoices
 They can submit invoices in PDF format (whether signed or not)

VIA EDI

If suppliers have a large number of invoices, they can be submitted using Electronic Document Interchange (EDI).

Looking ahead

As in many other European countries, mandatory paperless invoicing is being rolled out across the public sector.

Every business must now submit invoices to the public sector in electronic format, based on the timeline to the left.

Why wait? Get started now using Chorus Pro :
